

BASIC GRANT WRITING

MASTERING THE FUNDAMENTALS

HOSTED BY GRCC
FOUNDATION

Grants provide essential funding for many groups and organizations. Competing for grants can be a rewarding and even enjoyable process if you have the necessary skills and information to proceed with confidence.

Basic Grant Writing will teach you to plan, organize, and write effective grant proposals. In this course, you will obtain hands-on experience outlining a proposal that applies to your organization. You will leave the course with a well organized manual that will guide you through the grant writing process for years to come. You will have the knowledge and confidence to seek and obtain funding through the competitive grants process.

WALKING YOU THROUGH THE SUCCESSFUL GRANT WRITING PROCESS...

 For people with little or no grant writing experience who want to learn to write successful grants!

 Training customized to the needs and interests of participants.

 2½ days of expert instruction $525 ($500 if registered by 8/20/2010)

 Mark Your Calendar!
October 20-22, 2010

Grand Rapids Community College
Tassel M-TEC
622 Godfrey SW

Register by October 1, 2010

REGISTER ONLINE:

WWW.TAJONES.COM

For additional information contact:
Thomas A. Jones, Consultant
P.O. Box 4301
East Lansing, MI 48826

Phone: 517.410.5303
Fax: 517.913.6442
thomasjones@tajones.com

PLAN, ORGANIZE, AND WRITE...

Participants will learn basic rules of grant writing and will be able to:

- Research and locate applicable grant funds
- Describe the process for developing a grant proposal
- Develop a plan for writing a proposal
- Describe the major sections of a grant proposal
- Describe key steps in writing each section
- Cite basic rules for writing a proposal
- Recognize strengths and weaknesses of a sample proposal

“Great class! Very informative and well worth my time and my employer’s $.”

“This instructor was excellent. He conveyed the information in a professional, organized manner yet kept the participants excited and motivated.”

“My core knowledge of grant writing has greatly improved. I walked away feeling I have some on-going support, even after the workshop. I believe that grant writing notebook is worth its weight in gold. I find it extremely useful.”

“I would like to take the Intermediate course! Thank you for sharing your talents and expertise with us! This was an extremely valuable training!”

“You are one of the best instructors for a course like this that I have ever had. Great content, great pace & great delivery. Good adult learning techniques. Thank you!”